

Mulch Shield™

Protects the trunks of newly planted trees

Bark damage kills trees / Tree Shield protects trees

Mulch provides many tree benefits. However, mulch absorbs rain and sprinkler water. Blankets of wet mulch resting against young tree trunks rot the bark at the base, often killing unestablished, newly planted trees.

Mulch Shield protects against trunk rot and decay by maintaining a 2-inch separation between blankets of wet mulch and the base of trees.

